

Genus: Aloe
Species: arborescens
Cultivar:
Family: Liliaceae

Common Name: Tree aloe

Origin: South Africa

Stanford

Kind of Plant: Succulent

Seasonal Habit: Evergreen

Growth Habit: Upright

Height: to 18ft

Width: varies

Light Needs: Sun-Part Sun

Water Needs: Drought Tolerant - performs well with no irrigation after first 2 years.

Special Identifying Features

Leaves: Fleshy, pointed, gray-green, spiny edged

Bark/Twig: Not significant

Flowers: Long, spiky clusters, bright vermilion to clear yellow. December through June.

Fruit: Not significant

Disease(s):

Pest(s):

(Refer to Disease and Pest Control chart for treatments.)

Special Points: Withstands drought, sun, and salt spray.

Campus Location: 1) Arizona Garden, 2) New Guinea Garden